STUDENTS QUARREL OVER BOTTLE OF WHISKEY: 1 KILLED

A Dartmouth College Student Shot by Robert Meads

SELF DEFENSE IS CLAIMED

HANOVER, N. H., June 16.—A student quarrel over whiskey early today resulted in the killing of Henry E. Maroney, of Medford, Mass., a senior at Dartmouth college and the arrest of Robert T. Meads, of LaGrange, Ill., a junior, charged with the murder.

Meads fled after the shooting, which occurred at Maroney's rooms in the Theta Delta Chi fraternity house. While a posse of students were searching for him he walked twelve miles to Macoma Station and boarded a train for Boston. He was captured on the train by Sheriff C. M. Murray, who took from him an automatic pistol and obtained a confession in which Meads declared he fired in self defense.

When arraigned here before Judge H. E. Burton Meads waived examination and was held without bail for the September grand jury. He was taken to the county jail at Woodsville. He announced his defense would be directed by his father, A. H. Meads of Chicago, an attorney.

Meads' claim of self defense was not supported by details given by others. Early statements to the college authorities that a visit to Mead's room early this morning by Maroney and other students had no connection with liquor were disputed by subsequent statements.

Harold W. Whittaker of Somerville, Mass., Maroney's room mate, told County Solicitor G. H Newton that he and Maroney went to Mead's room in North Massachusetts hall to purchase a quart of whiskey. He agreed to sell them a pint and had gone to get it, Whittaken said, when Maroney picked up a partly filled quart bottle, passed it to Whittaker and told him to take it away.

Whittaker jumped from the window to the ground, 12 feet below and as Maroney followed. Meads fired three shots after them. Neither was hit and they thought it an attempt to frighten them.

Maroney and Whittaker then went to their rooms at the fraternity house and prepared for bed. They had not touched the liquor, he said.

Shortly afterwards Mead entered their rooms. Maroney was in the bathroom. Meads sat down at Maroney's desk. When Maroney came out, according to Whittaker's story, he approached Meads. Meads reached across the desk, pressed his pistol against Maroney's side and fired. No words was exchanged, Whittaker said. Maroney died almost instantly, shot thru the heart.

Meads ordered Whittaker, the latter said to "get out of here, or I'll do the same to you." As Whittaker started to leave by one door, Meads backed out of another, covering his retreat with his pistol.

Two other students aroused by the shot, rushed out of their rooms but not in time to catch Meads.

In his flight Meads was joined by Edwin T. Weis, of Hull, Alabama, who, when questioned later said he knew there had been a shooting, but did not know the nature of it, and sought only to aid his classmate in what he thought was a trivial scrape. They walked to Mascoma, where Meads boarded a Boston bound train. Weis returned to Hanover and was detained for a time, but was released later. Sheriff Murray boarded the train at Canaan, having received word to be on the watch. When he accosted Meads the latter admitted his indentity. Asked if he were armed the student surrendered his pistol. He said he was going to Boston to get in touch with his father, in order to have him help in his defense.

Meads told the sheriff that several students, among them Maroney, had gone to his rooms, overpowered him and stole the whiskey. He fought them to recover his liquor, he said, and in a quarrel, fired in what he considered self defense.

Both Maroney and Meads were ensigns in the navy during the war, Maroney in the transport service and Meads as flyer at Pensacola. Maroney was president of the Dartmouth Dramatic society and popular at college. He was suspended last year because of a drunken row but was allowed to return on a pledge that he would abstain from liquor until he was graduated.

President Ernest M. Hopkins expressed the belief today that Maroney had kept the pledge, altho it was considered possible that, with his degree earned, he assumed he was released from it and had arranged a spree with Whittaker by way of celebration.

Meads was involved in a fatal shooting of a fellow freshman named Arnold during his first year at college, a shot gun being discharged while they were examining it. Before his death Arnold made a signed statement that it was an accident.

CONTINUE CAMPAIGN TO ORGANIZE IRON AND STEEL INDUSTRY

Full Cooperation From all Unions Sought by A. F. of L.

MONTREAL, June 16.—The American Federation of Labor convention today authorized the continuation of its organization campaign in the iron and steel industry. The executive council was instructed to call a conference of the international unions to procure their full co-operation.

The recent steel strike was declared a "wonderful success" by Joseph D. Cannon of New York, member of the national committee of Iron and Steel Workers, in an address. He appealed to the federation to aid in preparing for a new strike.

The federation condemned the practice of clothing strike breakers or George Guards in control of private individuals or agencies in the uniform of the United States army or navy.

The classification of the civil service and adoption of a wage scale is demanded in a resolution unanimously adopted.

The executive council was instructed to take up the work of "centralizing," analyzing, and disseminating industrial problems for the information of organized labor.

Congress was called upon to provide liberal appropriations for the study of labor and social problems and technical research in all branches of sciences.

Declaring that the cost of living "must go no higher," immediate legislation to curb profiteering was demanded. Regret was expressed that congress had failed to enact a single conservative measure, to that end and the executive council was instructed to press labor's specific proposals constituting a program of remedy for reducing living costs.

The federation re-affirmed its declaration of principles laid down in 1918 that those contributing to production should have a part in its control, and declared in favor of setting up of voluntary conference boards of organized workers and employers as means of promoting the democracy of industry thru development of co-operative effort.

Autocratic control of industry was condemned.

ILLINOIS PRIMARY LAW KILLED BY SUPREME COURT

Primary Act of 1910 is Now In Force

BRUNDAGE RULES ON ACT

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 16. Solution of the problem in the Eleventh and Fifteen judicial districts, where pending elections called for next month were invalidated when the supreme court killed the primary law today, was in sight tonight.

There was no doubt as to the effect of the decision in state and county central committees, Attorney-General Brundage having announced positively that the primary act of 1910 is now in force, and all committeemen and committees elected thereunder, prior to 1920, shall return to power and continue to serve until successors are chosen.

But there still remained some uncertainty as to the proper procedure regarding the special judicial elections. Pointing to the law, which requires only thirty-one days between convention and election of judge, Attorney-General Brundage advised the secretary of state to call another convention in the Fifteenth district for June 25. This district includes Ogle, Lee and Stevenson counties, where two vacancies, caused by the deaths of Judges Farrand and Eaton, are to be filled.

Governor Lowden has called the election for July 27, which is more than the required thirty-one days beyond. The convention, under the law that is now dead, was to have been held tomorrow. In the Eleventh district, which includes McLean county, the Republican convention has already nominated Edward Barry, Bloomington, who was unopposed by the Democrats.

C. O. SEN. HARDING IN CONFERENCE WITH LEADERS

Wiill Try to Please all Factors, Says Nominee

HOPES TO HOLD PROGRESSIVES

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(By The Associated Press.)—Plans for bringing Senator Harding, Republican presidential nominee into closer touch with party leaders, particularly those of the progressive wing, were discussed today by the senator with Walter F. Brown, of Toledo his flaar manager of the Chicago convention. The conference is understood to have resulted in a decision to send inviations at once to a number of prominent progressives asking them to meet the nominee.

Friends of Senator Harding said tonight the proposed conferences would be held before the nominee's formal notification which will be some time after July 15. The senator, it was said, hopes to utilize views expressed by the par[illegible] leaders in the preparation of his speech of acceptance.

While some of the meetings may be held before Mr. Harding leaves Washington Monday, the greater portion are expected to take place while he is on his vacation.

The visit of Mr. Brown today was regarded as significant. In 1912 he was chairman of the Ohio State Progressive committee and was active in the campaign for Roosevelt.

"I think you will find the progressives wil be behind Senator Harding," Mr. Brown said as he left.

Indication that Mr. Harding however, intends to ascertain the views of all leaders in the party was contained in his announcement of a conference last night attended by Senators Lodge, Brandegee of Connecticut, Fall of New Mexico and Smoot of Utah. This meeting at which the party platform was discussed is expected to be the forerunner of many others.

Senator Harding also gave considerable attention today to Ohio polical matters conferring with W. L. Parmenter of Lima, former state chairman. The candidate made public a letter withdrawing his petition for senatorial renomination.

Shortly before he left his office for the day, General Pershing called and remained for about fifteen minutes.

"It was merely a social call," said the general as he departed, "The senator is a very good friend of mine."

The deluge of telegrams and letters continued today.

Among the telegrams received was one from Thomas Taggart, Indiana Democratic leader and candidate for senator.

"I desire to take this opportunity to congratulate you upon your nomination," he said. "I have said repeatedly that if we had to have a Republican president you would be my first choice."

Now they are talking about nominating McAdoo and Cox at the San Francisco convention. That sounds like hitching the wet and dry advocates together and trying to satisfy all worthy Democrats.

Nicholas Murray Butler is out with a long explanation of just why Gen. Wood could not be nominated and charging that his defeat was due to the monied interests behind his candidacy. The announcement is not very illuminating and nobody beside Dr. Butler seems to know just the reason for its issuance.

Candidate Harding has frankly admitted that there is no truth in the story that he was born in a log cabin. Thus one of the usual campaign myths is quickly dispelled. However, the candidate was born on a farm and that fact will be fully as effective as the log cabin story.

WORDS OF PRAISE

Senator Kenyon of Iowa was for Johnson, but here is what he says about the Republican presidential candidate;

"Senator Harding is a man of charming personality, a splendid orator, clean and honorable in private and public life, 100 per cent American, and will make a good president."

AN IDLE TALE

Now, one of the Missouri delegates, who misappropriated funds paid to him for publicity work in the Lowden campaign, says he has paid the money back. Evidently he is trying to make it appear that the money was turned over to him tentatively, not to be used unless the coveted nomination was landed by the Illinois executive. Few people will believe the story.

FORGETS THE DAYS OF REAL SPORT

The mayor of Evanston will certainly be defeated if he runs again. All the kids in that exclusive town will see that this happens, for the mayor is just out with a proclamation that no fire-crackers, sky rockets or similar fireworks will be permitted on the Fourth of July. Only the harmless sparkler has official recognition.

The Evanston executive has evidently forgotten all about the time that he was a boy. Or possibly he was of the Little Lord Fauntleroy type.

MUNDY TRYING HARD TO ESCAPE PUNISHMENT

C. B. Mundy, convicted of bank wrecking schemes, is making a most strenuous effort to escape the prison sentence imposed upon him by a high court. It begins to look as if he is certain of failure and that he will eventually land behind the walls of a federal prison.

If, with all his wealth, Mundy is not able to escape payment of penalty, belief in the justice of high courts will be further strengthened.

THE PRIMARY LAW FINDING

The state supreme court has knocked out the primary law, and some political confusion will result. The full effect is not yet generally understood and a complete opinion of the attorney-general is awaited. But it is certain that in the various counties central committees as now constituted become impotent and the old central committees will be in power, at least until the September primary.

While the finding will mean a lot of confusion, certainly the charge seems well proven that the amendment to the law which the last generaly assembly made was so phrased that it placed too much power in committee hands and so tended to take away from voters the rights to which they were entitled. The primary law as a whole has some good points and many defects.

THESE POLICEMEN KNOW

(The Decatur Review.)

Members of the Illinois Policemen's association, in session at Aurora, have unanimously adopted a resolution opposing strikes "by men or women in police service, as the public looks to them for protection."

This was quite wisely resolved; it is something like a policeman should talk. There is no one else who should appreciate as well as he the likely dire results that may be expected to follow when guardians of law and order desert their post and turn a community over to malefactors.

There was a big test of this thing in Boston several months since, and the country is pretty sure it doesn't want another. The policeman who won't stick to his job in a pinch is a little the worst misfit to be found in all outdoors.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

PEACE.

I see around me in my home my smiling aunts and nieces; so I embalm it in a pome—my humble shack where peace is. No wrangling voices here are heard, no sister roasts her brother, but each one has a kindly word to pass on to the other. Dissension here stirs up no crimes or causes ire unholy; and so we have most joyous times, and age comes on us slowly. My uncles and my cousins sit, serenely at their spinnin'; my seven grandmas darn and knit, and chew no useless linen. They say the world is all uptorn with grief and tribulations, and many countries whoop and mourn and sling recriminations. There is no peace, though war is done, and woe is just as busy as when we chased the howling Hun and made the kaiser dizzy. Oh, men are mad—in every dome are bats in number ample; but we are setting in our home an excellent example. And if you all would try our scheme, give it fair rehearsal, grief soon would be a bygone dream, and peace be universal.

MEN AT WHITE HALL PLANT GO ON STRIKE

Employes of White Hall Sewer Pipe & Stoneware Co. Demand Wage Increase and Quit Work When Same is Refused—Series of Tent Meetings in Progress.

White Hall, June 15.—The plants of the White Hall Sewer Pipe & Stoneware Co., including the drain tile works, the electric railway and the clay mines, are closed down because of the demands of the employes for an increase of 10c per hour. The demands were made upon the company Monday and it was agreed to await an answer until noon Tuesday, when an adverse decision was made by Secretary Stahl, with the result that the sewer pipe and stoneware departments failed to operate Tuesday afternoon, and during the afternoon the men at the drain tile works quit work. None of the men in these works or at the clay mines reported for work this morning, and it is said that the affair has resolved itself into a finished fight, being the first shutdown because of labor trouble since before the war. The new demands would make the minimum wage 51c per hour. The White Hall Pottery Works have made an increase that makes that institution immune from strike, but an effort has been made to get those men out in sympathy. The strike is a boon to the farming industry, and the men are being taken up rapidly at farm work at from five to seven dollars per day with dinner. This pays better than the factory scale, and there will be about 300 men available with the men laid off by a reduction of the force at the C. & A. round house at Roodhouse, where a number of White Hall laborers are employed.

A series of tent meetings under the auspices of the Seventh Day Adventists was begun Tuesday on the court at the rear of the I. day night. The tent is pitched D. Vedder residence on North Main street, and the meetings are under the direction of an evangelist from Springfield. There is considerable local activity in that faith under the superintendency of Fred Hopcroft and the secretaryship of Miss Louise Meisenbach.

Literberry M. E. society will hold market Saturday p. m., June 19, at store of Jacksonville Plumbing & Heating Co. West State street. Everything good to eat.

RED CROSS ACTIVE IN HOME SERVICE WORK

Assistance Given in Large Number of Cases During Past Month — Survey Soon to Be Made in Country.

The regular monthly meeting of the Red Cross Morgan County chapter was held Tuesday evening, headquarters, public library. In the absence of the chairman, J. J. Kelly presided with the following members present: H. J. Rodgers, W. Barr Brown, treasurer; Mrs. Ralph Dunlap, chairman, nursing activities; Miss Dawson, secretary of home service section; Dr. F. A. Norris, chairman first aid and Mrs. F. J. Heinl, secretary.

The report of Miss Clara Austin Red Cross child welfare nurse showed a total of forty-eight cases having been visited during the month of May, to which sixty-four visits had been made, including prenatal, obstetric, and preschool, orthepedic, etc., both nursing and instructive visits having been made.

The report of Miss Norma Dawson, secretary of Home Service section showed a total of 133 cases of various types having been rendered assistance during the month of May. Visits had been made to Meredosia, Concord and to other branches. Many ex-service men had been rendered assistance and a total of thirty-one cases of disabled men had been rendered assistance. Miss Dawson gave many interesting items of this branch of the Red Cross work.

An important action was taken by the executive committee, was the decision to make application for authorization to do emergency family work outside of Jacksonville, which authorization will place Morgan county chapter upon a peace basis. When granted, this authorization will place the branches of the chapter on a peace basis and will permit them to do this type of work in their own community under the direction of the Home Service secretary, Miss Norma Dawson.

The Red Cross limits its activities in Jacksonville to the Home Service work for ex-service men and their families and to child welfare work.

The report of W. Barr Brown, treasurer, for the month of May was received and placed on file.

Secretary reported that the survey to determine the type of work to be done by the chapter and its branches would probably be made during the month of June.

Tickets for pageant, "The City Beautiful" tomorrow evening, will be placed on sale tomorrow morning at Grand Opera house; price 50c anywhere in house.

MISS M'NAMARA WEDS JAMES V. KENNEDY

Ceremony Said at Church of Our Savior Wednesday Morning—Will Take Wedding Trip to North—Expect to Reside In Iowa.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of Our Savior at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning when Miss Kathryn McNamara became the bride of James V. Kennedy. Nuptial mass was said by the Rev. Father F. F. Formaz. They were attended by Miss May Hoban of this city and Leo Finn of Virginia.

To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Margaret Ring, the wedding party entered the church. While the vows were being said Ave Maria was beautifully sung by Misses Harriet and Lucille Kennedy, sisters of the groom.

The bride's gown was a handsome creation of white chiffon over white silk, with bridal veil. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Hoban's gown was yellow organdie with picture hat to match. She carried a bouquet of roses tied with yellow tulle.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served by Mrs. Elizabeth Butler, an aunt of the bride, at her home 767 South Church street.

The couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. After a brief wedding trip to a northern resort they will be at home to their friends at 837 Goltra avenue. Later they expect to reside in Iowa.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Andrew J. McNamara and and has always made her home in this city. She is a member of the Church of Our Savior and is a young woman who, by her charm of manner, has endeared herself to a wide circle of friends.

The groom is also a resident of this city. He is at present engaged in the automobile insurance business and has proven successful in his work. He is a young man who commands the respect of all who know him.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were: Leo Finn, Virginia; Miss Eunice York, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Katherine Kelly, St. Louis; Katherine Hooley, Peoria, and Mrs. Thomas Newell and Ray Shortridge, Ashland.

CIVIC PRIDE LEAGUE NOW BUSY AT WORK

In Personal Canvass People Are Asked to Follow Rules—Complaints Filed About Offensive Chicken Yards.

Officers of the Civic Pride league are actively engaged in their work of inspection and a canvass is being made in all four wards. As a matter of fact, "inspection" is not just the proper word, for the canvass is mainly for the purpose of explaining to residents the purposes of the league and to acquaint them with the inspection cards and some other facts related to the movement.

Mrs. Keith Montgomery and Mrs. J. W. Clearly, who are directing the workers, are having more complaints filed about chicken yards than any other one thing. It seems that there are quite a number of residents who are careless about the condition of their chicken yards and the hot weather is resulting in offensive odors.

It is hoped that all persons who own chicken yards will join in this clean-up program by keeping the chicken yards in cleanly condition and scattering lime or some other deodorizer. As the season advances and melon time comes, the chicken yard conditions will get worse instead of better unless property owners join heartily in the clean-up program

Business
When you take your vacation this year, you are going to wear proper clothes.
Proper clothes means clothes which will keep you cool and make you appear in the eyes of the world as a progressive, up-to-date business man. It is as important to your health that you "feel" mentally right as that you make money and succeed in business. You cannot feel right if poorly dressed, especially amongst strangers. Think about this before you go away. You can buy clothes in Jacksonville, especially good tailored to order clothes, cheaper than in any other city to which you will go. There is no argument about this whatever. Come to see us before you go, and at least inform yourself on this question, whether you now feel able to buy clothes or not.

Smiley Predicts $20 Flour.

Flour at $20 a barrel will come before the price of breadstuffs begin to decline.

This prediction was made recently by E. J. Smiley, secretary of the Kansas Grain Dealers' Association, who delivered an address before the convention of the Trans-Mississippi Association of Master Bakers, in session at the Chamber of Commerce, Topeka, Kan. Mr. Smiley was one of the principal speakers on the afternoon program. He cast a rather gloomy outlook upon the prospects for a big wheat crop this year.

Barring financial trouble, bread grains will continue to soar for at least another year, he said. Even at that the price of bread has not been boosted as much as other necessities, he declared.

OLD SHAVING BRUSH DOOMED

Even Lather and Rubbing Are Now Passe.

Up-to-date Men Are Using Barbasol for Shaving.

Life is truly becoming simpler. Another "habit" has been found a fallacy. All these years men have thought the shaving brush a necessity. With it we have wasted hours of our valuable time working up the lather on our beards preparatory to the daily shave.

Now, they say, this was lost motion; a waste of time.

The shaving brush is dangerous, carries germs of fatal disease, such as anthrax.

And, the alkali, which must be a part of soap in order to make lather, irritates the face and makes it sore.

Barbasol, the antiseptic beard softener, does away with all these, makes the skin healthy and free from all shaving irritations, smart, and soreness, and gives a better shave.

All druggists sell Barbasol.

If your druggist hasn't Barbosol it will be mailed to you on receipt of price, 35 cents, and druggist's name. Made only by the Napco Corporation, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Why Should You Use a National Vacuum Cleaner

BECAUSE: It washes much quicker, does it much cleaner and with a great deal less work to the operator.

Why Does It Wash Quicker

BECAUSE: The rapid action of the dasher driving the hot water and suds through the soiled clothes forces the dirt out. The agitation of the hot water makes the dirt respond immediately. Two to six minutes will remove the dirt from any fabric that can be cleaned with soap and water.

Why Does It Wash Cleaner

BECAUSE: By the vacuum principle the dirt is all forced OUT, instead of rubbing part of it into the fabric.

Why with Less Work to the Operator

BECAUSE: By the vacuum principle it requires only power to handle the water, not the clothes. This eliminates the wear on the fabric and makes the machine run much easier.

In order to fully appreciate the real value of THE NATIONAL VACUUM WASHER, YOU MUST GIVE IT A TRIAL.

MOTHER OF CONCORD RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Kate Hamm Passed Away at Old Home in Carlisle, Ky.—Children's Day Programs at Churches—Other Concord News

Concord, June 15.—On Tuesday, the 8th, Dr. A. M. Johnson accompanied Mrs. Kate Hamm and Mrs. Ora T. Hamm to Carlisle, Ky., the home of Mrs. Ida M. Tolbert. Mrs. Kate Hamm had been making an extended visit here at the home of her son, O. T. Hamm. She had very poor health for some time, and at last she expressed a longing for her old home, so the arrangement was made, as above stated.

On Wednesday they arrived at Carlisle, all right, but the aged patient was near the end of her life's journey. At 8:30 p. m., Saturday, she passed on to the other side. Had Mrs. Hamm lived until to day, the 15th, she would have been exactly 74 years of age. She was a woman of many admirable traits and had a large circle of friends here and in her old home.

Ora T. Hamm started south on Sunday afternoon, to attend the funreal, the time of which was not then announced. The only survivors are the son and daughter above mentioned, Ora T. Hamm, of Concord, and Mrs. Ida May Tolbert, of Carlisle, and one brother, Frank Hamilton, of Chapin, Ill.; also five grandchildren.

The annual session of St. Paul's Lutheran church, southwest of here, was held last Sunday, in an all-day meeting. It was also the 70th anniversary of the founding of the local church. Rev. Sauer, of Bishop, spoke in the morning. In the afternoon at 2:30, Rev. Edward Tappenbeck, of Chicago, a former pastor, was the principal speaker. Rev. J. H. Sieving, the present pastor, also spoke. In the evening, Rev. Martin, of Chandlerville, made the closing address. Four congregations were invited and were well represented—Jacksonville, Arenzville, Lydia and Neeleyville were the churches invited.

Rev. J. G. Kuppler and wife, of Jacksonville, were present in the afternoon and evening. Rev. John Deterding helped to represent Neeleyville. Jacob Tiemann, of Gary, Ind., came especially to attend the services, he being the first person confirmed in the local church. Herman Englebrecht, of Texas, a former resident, was also present. Of the first members there are only three living, George Perbix, Mrs. Hemminghaus and Henry Rolf. Rev. Edward Tappenbeck, of Chicago, is the only former pastor now living.

Dinner and supper was served on the church lawn and was highly enjoyed. The offering taken amounted to $405.

Miss Martha Wolters, of Harbine, Neb., has been visiting relatives near Chapin, and expects to return one day soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Edmondson, of Rushville, were Sunday visitors at the home of her sister, Mrs. Oscar Reams.

Miss Lela Edelbrock, of Jacksonville, has been visiting her former schoolmate, Marie Alderson.

The Christian Sunday school gave a very enjoyable entertainment on Saturday night and on Sunday night the M. P. S. S. gave their children's exercises, which were of creditable kind.

On Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service at the Christian church, two new members were received into the church by baptism. Minister C. A. Middleton, of Chapin, is pastor.

Matrimonial

Yording-Graubner.

At eight o'clock Wednesday evening at the parsonage of Rev. Father Formaz was solmenized the marriage of Miss Frances Katherine Graubner and Albert Yording. They were attended by Miss Clara Rook and Edward Graubner a brother of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Graubner and has always made Jacksonville her home receiving her education in the local Parochial school, afterward attending Routt college and Brown's business colloge, also having studied voice at Illinois Woman's college. For the past few years she has been in the employ of the Cloverleaf Life and Casualty company of this city.

Mrs. Yording is a young woman of charming personality and has a host of admiring friends, who wish her all happiness in her new life.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Fred Yording, having spent most if his life on a farm near Chapin, moving to this city about a year ago where he has since been in the employ of Brady Bros. Hardware Co. Mr. Yording served in the great world war, being nine months overseas. Was in the battles of Verdun and Argonne, being wounded November 8 at Argone Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Yording left for Chicago and other northern points amid showers of rice and good wishes of many friends and will be at home to their friends after July 1, at 271 Sandusky street.

CIRCUIT COURT SESSIONS CONTINUE

Suit of C. H. Bergschneider vs. Hines at al, to Be Called This Morning—Jury Dismissed for Unusual Reason.

In the circuit court yesterday Judge Burton dismissed the jury in the case of Carl H. Bergschneider vs. Walker D. Hines and the Chicago and Alton railroad. The docket entry indicates an unusual condition. After the jury had been empanelled and the trial entered upon, the statement was made to the court by an officer of the state board of health that one of the jurors, Perry Cowgur, had been exposed to smallpox a few days ago.

Mr. Cowgur explained that such was the case but that he had been advised by a physician that with a change of clothing there would be no danger in his leaving the house. However, under all the circumstances the court dismissed the jury, and another one will be empanelled this morning. The jurors, who were about to hear the case were, C. M. Burnett, J. W. Witwer, Henry Tendick, Jr., Otto Eckles, Howard Reynolds, E. A. May, D. T. Summers, William Kirby, Edward DeBaurnfeind, Perry Cowgur, Harry Carroll, H. E. Jolly.

Court Orders

In the assumpsit of Daniel T. Smith vs. J. A. Paschall, an order of continuance was made by agreement.

In the appealed case of L. W. Cox vs. Walker D. Hines, judgment for $100 in favor of the complainant was entered by agreement.

In the chancery suit of Noah Hudson et al, vs. John Garvin, an effort to set aside will, an order was made indicating that a jury has been waived.

In the partition suit of Cora Hart vs. Helen Decker et al, decree approving master's report filed.

In the foreclosure suit of Dr. P. L. Brown vs. George McSherry et al, an order to redocket was allowed and rule was entered against George H. McSherry to show cause why he should not be fined for contempt because of failure to surrender the premises.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Mayor William Hale Thompson today directed the institution of a suit to compel the county treasurer to turn over $30,000,000 in taxes belonging to the city and at present held in trust by Chicago banks.

A resolution asking an investigation to determine the cause of the city's financial distress was passed by the city council today.

The action followed a statement by James B. Forgan, chairman of the Chicago Clearing House, that the city's request for a $15,000,000 loan had been refused by Chicago banks.

MANY FINE ADDRESSES AT STATE CONVENTION

Wednesday's Sessions Were of an Inspiring Kind — Parade and Sing Attracted Much Attention —Convention Closes this Evening.

Wednesday morning dawned clear and pleasant the clerk of the weather evidently taking pity on the sweltering multitude gathered here and favoring them with a salubrious breeze which lasted a good part of the day. The early meetings of the convention were fairly attended and a fine spirit prevailed in all of them.

Surely every person attending this convention should go away better fitted for the great work and filled with a new enthusiasm and earnest desire to accomplish grand things for the rising generation.

President Hauberg was not on hand at the beginning of the main session in Christian church but he knew he was in Jacksonville where there is plenty of talent to take his place or any other. The early program was carried out and following this came a song service led by Prof. H. A. Smith with Willard Wesner ably accompanying on the piano. "Stand Up for Jesus," and "I Love to Tell the Story," were sung with spirit and understanding and then Prof. Smith asked all to bow their heads and softly, without accompainment, sing as a prayer the first stanza of "Nearer My God to Thee," which was done with telling effect.

Childrens Department.

Mrs. Maud J. Baldwin of Chicago, leader of the children's department in the International Sunday school association was then introduced and made an impassioned plea for childhood. Surely she is the right person in the right place.

She then said in part:

I wish I could cause you to look into the children's eyes this morning; to feel their thoughts and their feelings; to knew them as they are and think of them as here.

There are in the country 27 million children one-half of whom have no religious training, Protestant, Catholic or Jewish and the other half get much that is not very valuable. It is nonsense to talk of a new day coming till we have a different attitude toward children.

There is a place which had no facilities for childhood recreation and the people were asked for a playground but they said they couldn't afford it but later some men came together and declared the live stock must have better quarters and a $30,000 building was put up for the cattle and hogs but the children couldn't have a playground.

We all should remember that all children may be developed to a greater or less extent. Every child should have an opportunity to find God.

R. A. Wait discussed "The Crux of the Young People's Work. He is a forceful speaker and tremendously in earnest as were all the others who addressed the convention. He said in part:

If I should ask you what is the chief beautitide of the American people I wonder what your answer would be. I will tell you what mine would be. "Blessed is he that bloweth his own horn, for the same shall be blowed." I have traveled many thousand miles in my work and have been present under all sorts of conditions but this is certainly the most unique introduction that I ever knew, and it has left a very happy impression upon us.

This country will never become what it should be when people make the proud boast of supplying the submarine, or 90 per cent of the oil and lima beans. The wise man should not boast of his wisdom, the strong man of his strength, or the wealthy man of his riches, but we should produce such an environment that ours will be the city of God.

"When is the child is lost? When is the child found? I would like to have your answer. If I talk to boys I must talk in their language.

Religion is the right relationship of man to God. When the prodigal son determined to return home he no doubt rehearsed the story he would tell his father many times. But when the dear old man fell upon his neck and kissed him he forgot all about his studied speech and his father permitted him to make it and taken him at his word, how different would have been his future.

The Crux of the whole thing is to bring the boy and the girl into right relationship with God and man and to maintain that relationship at all times.

Religious Education.

Dr. Cope discussed "Religious Education and My Job and Yours." The gentleman in a strong speech pointed out in rather severe language the lack that pervades so much religious education.

My Job and yours is to overcome that, the heart and heart with the children, to teach them that religion is never designed to make our pleasures less but always more, and to show them the beauty of religion, the genuine attractions of Christ and his work and the joy of service and sonship with the Lord.

Dr. Tralle discussed "Orders of Worship." The gentleman spoke rather disparagingly of much of the literature that is supplied Sunday schools at the present time and bewailed many of the shortcomings in the singing books, Sunday school supplies and other material furnished.

In all of these there is very great room for improvement. We must give the children the best talent there is, offering them the best books, the best of periodicals the best Sunday school papers and everything which will tend to cultivate and stimulate the mind.

A great deal depends on the wise order of worship, making it attractive without sensation and having it elevating in character, and enobling in sentiment.

The meeting of all the delegates in session No. 5, at the Christian church Wednesday gave some idea of the large number of delegates attending the convention and it was inspiring to hear the reports from each delegation as their county was called.

Much interest has been aroused over the selection of the next convention city, Galesburg extends an invitation and is advertising the fact with banners and tags. Urbana also wants the 1921 convention and they have provided delegates with leaflets setting forth their claims.

Following the meeting the delegates gathered on the academy hall lawn where their picture was taken by Spieth Brothers. Orders will be taken for the pictures at the churches today.

Led by Merritt band and Dr. Strange's Saxo band of Hillsboro the delegates paraded down West ingState street to the square and massed in the east side of th square where, under the direction of Professor Smith of Boston university they joined in a sing of old songs.

The Saxo band composed of young boys under the direction of Dr. Strange, attracted much attention and favorable comment.

The citizen police aided the regular police in keeping traffic off the square and West State street during the parade.

Coming Meetings.

The evening meetings were well attended, at the Christian church. Professor Smith led a song service and Mr. W. C. Pearce made an inspiring address on "Religious Education and the Present Era," taking as his theme the need of spiritualizing the material things of the past generation in the coming generation.

At Grace church Miss Pearl L. Weaver, presided, Mrs. Maud J. Baldwin, international superintendent of the children's division, gave an illustrated talk on "Working the Children's Division."

George N. Burnie, general secretary of the state association, made a short talk to the county children's division superintendents in recognition of their services. "Religious Education and the church in a Changing World," the subject of Dr. Henry F. Cope of Chicago.

Those interested in young people's work gathered at the State Street church and listened to "Sweet Sixteen," an address on girlhood and womanhood by Dr. H. E. Tralle and another by R. on '-KDn-mn-t ntSHRDLUHRD E. Fralle and another by R. A. A. Waite of Chicago on "Get on Your Mafk! Get Set! Bang!

Dr. Strange's Saxo band visited each of the services and was well received at each church.

Thirty-five cars will take the delegates and the Saxo band out for a visit at the state hospital at 9 o'clock this morning. T. M. Tomlinson and J. G. Berger are in charge of the trip. The Saxo band will give a concert at the hospital.

There will be 600 seats left at the opera house tonight after the delegates are seated these will be on sale at the box offic at 9 o'clock this morning at fifty cnts each.

CONVENTION NOTES

In the absence of President Hauberg, Clarence Depew ably filled his place.

The fine instruction of the musical institutions of Jacksonville was well demonstrated in the song service.

The delegates have all been located and on the whole there has been but little friction. Jacksonville hospitality has been well demonstrated during the convention.

The total registration up to yesterday was 765. Knox county, Galesburg, sent forty; Fulton sent forty; Sangamon, 29; Mason, 23 and nineteen came down from the village of Chicago.

Galesburg is making a strong bid for the next convention; badges with "Galesburg 1921," are being worn by the Knox county people.

The audience at the Christian church was truly inspiring both in size and quality.

When one hears the high standards set up by the illustrious speakers it causes a bit of despair, for who of ordinary mortals can accomplish the things set forth and yet that is just what such gatherings are for; to arouse in all present an inspiration and determination to do all that is possible.

With the Sick

Mrs. Robert McFarland of Litterberry returned to her home from Passavant hospital yesterday.

Is Your Skin Ablaze With Fiery Itchings?

Don't Continue to Suffer Because of Wrong Treatment

At last science has determined the real source of all skin diseases, and with this enlightenment comes the reason why the prevailing treatment heretofore used has proven such a complete failure. It has been proven that impurities in the blood cause millions of tiny disease germs to set up their attack on the surface of the skin, and in the form of pimples, boils, scaly eruptions and itchy, burning irritations, begin their disfiguring and destructive work.

Being in the blood, these disease germs can be reached only through the blood, and local applications have no effect whatever. That is why salves, ointments, lotions, washes and other remedies applied to the skin can do no more than give merely temporary relief. Soon the fiery itching breaks out again, for such treatment cannot reach the source of the trouble.

If you want genuine relief from the tortures of skin diseases, lose no time in discarding all local remedies and begin taking S. S. S. today and you will be delighted with the results.

You can get S. S. S. at any drug store and if you write to our physician he will gladly give you full instructions about your own case. Address Medical Director, 604 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

TRIBUTE PAID TO MELVIN M'EVERS

King's Courier, a publication issued by the King Motor company in the issue of June 7, contains a tribute to Melvin McEvers formerly of this city who met death in Detroit on May 18. The tribute follows:

Tuesday afternoon, May 18th, Melvin E. McEvers, our chief electrician, was killed by a heavy motor truck on one of the driveways alongside Plant No. 1.

"Mac," as he liked to be called, was not only a prince of a fellow but an exceptional workman. He was a most loyal and cheerful worker. If there was work which had to be accomplished by overtime, on a Sunday, holiday or Saturday afternoon, Mack was always ready and willing to do his part. Everyone was his friend because he had a most captivating smile that just made you like him.

Mac was born in Jacksonville, Illinois, and was 27 years of age. He started with the King Company a little over three years ago as an assistant electrician and by his attention to and thoroughness in his work he was made head of the Electrical Department. In May, 1918, he went into the army as a bugler, returning to the factory in January, 1919.

He knew the electrical end of motor car construction frontwards and backwards. In addition he knew how to remedy the other troubles a car will sometimes develop. In brief, McEvers was a workman of the highest type. He knew all there was to know about his own particular kind of work and a good deal of the other man's job as well.

Every man in the organization feels keenly the loss of one so thoroughly liked and in this small way we wish to pay tribute to his splendid manhood and strong and cheerful character, which will always remain pleasant memories.

BURN THE FALLING TWIGS

Wherever the locusts attack trees many twigs fall and generally these are well stocked with eggs which should all be gathered up and burned.

A lady said she had heard that locusts had been successfully driven from a locality by a large number of people simultaneously beating on tin pans. It would be pretty hard to get all in the city to do this at once but if all knew it would scare away the pests there would be a trial.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR A. J. TAYLOR

Were Held Wednesday Morning From Reynolds Chapel—Large Number In Attendance—Burial In Jacksonville Cemetery.

The funeral of the late A. J. Taylor was conducted at the Reynolds chapel yesterday morning in the presence of a large and sympathetic audience, and a goodly attendance of comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Excellent music was supplied by Mrs. W. D. Hitt, Miss Cora Graham, C. L. Mathis and James Guyette, with Willard Wesner accompanying on the organ. Their selections were, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," "Rock of Ages," and "Come Unto Me When Shadows Darkly Gather." The services were conducted by Rev. M. L. Pontius, who read suitable portions of Scripture and offered an earnest prayer. He took for his theme the words from the eleventh chapter of Hebrews, referring to Abraham, where it said: "He looked for a city with foundations whose Builder and maker is God." A part of his discourse is offered:

"These words were written by the follower of Christ and referred to Abraham, who lived two thousand years before they were written to Abraham.

"But his life was so near to God that he lived in those days. And his influence was felt by the writer. On the one side I see those whose hearts are sore today because the family ties have been broken and a loved one has been called away. And to them we tender our most sincere and hearty sympathy.

"Upon the other side I see before me Mr. Taylor's comrades in arms, men who like him marched through the trying years of the Civil war, whose heroism secured for us a grand and glorious heritage which we now enjoy and who have gathered here today to show their respect for the departed comrade. Not long since I conducted such a service as this and Mr. Taylor was present and at the close he came forward and, shaking my hand, expressed his satisfaction with the service. And I never can forget that day, for I love the Grand Army veterans, who gave their life and their services for their country.

"Mr. Taylor was not only a veteran of the war but he was also a soldier of Christ, and bore the invisible weapons with which he ever fought the good fight of faith, and lay hold upon eternal life. And ever did he look for the city which has foundations, as did the patriarch of old. And we should ever have our faces toward that same city. But we must not talk too much of Heaven or have all of our thoughts there. If we live right, following the precepts of the Redeemer, Heaven is begun with us here on earth, imperfect here but without flaw up there.

"I go back four thousand years to the days of Abraham and think of him, how he lived in the morning of civilization, and I can see him in imagination standing on the hills near Hebron and gazing toward the sunset over the great sea, while his thoughts went toward his Maker, and he looked beyond the humble tent he occupied toward the city which one day would be his. And so let us live that in this busy day we may stand on the heights about us and with the eye of faith look beyond this vale of tears into the glorious rest prepared for them that love him in that city which hath foundations whose streets are of gold, whose gates are of pearl, where no night is, and where the redeemed of the Lord shall rest in peace forever."

At the close of the services the remains were borne to the last resting place in Jacksonville cemetery.

The bearers were: Harry Cobb, William McCurley, S. O. Barr, William E. Hall, Ezra Scott and Frank Wigginjost.

The flowers were cared for by Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. A. J. Weakley, Mrs. Arthur Taylor and Mrs. Harry Cobb.

VISITOR FROM KANSAS.

C. Stanley of Madison Greedwood county, Kan., arrived in the city yesterday for a visit with his brothers and families of Joy Prairie. He says out with him prospects are excellent. Like us they have had lots of cold and wet in the spring but dry weather has arrived also a refreshing rain recently. He says already some have started self binders in their wheat intending to put in the headers later on. Wheat can be cut a bit earlier with a binder which is the reason the machine is used out there as help is scarce. When wheat stands up all right Mr. Stanley say they can cut 40 acres in a day and a half.

Oats are well along tho Easter Sunday there was a lively frost oats sown broadcast and not so well in the ground suffered some but most of them were drilled and are alright. Mr. Stanley says he had a field sown broad cast and the grain that was not deeply covered was killed but still he looks for a good crop. Wheat is quite promising.

Mr. Stanley expects to return Saturday as he can't well be away from home long at a this time of the year.

Daily Market Report

LITTLE INTEREST IN STOCK TRADING

NEW YORK, June 16.—Efforts of pools and cliques to stimulate a degree of public interest in the stock market today were attended with slight success despite additional bidding of various specialties, notably several of the closely held issues.

Easy money again favored the professional element, call loans opening at 7 per cent but falling to six soon after mid-day. This fact was regarded as noteworthy because of the further shifting of funds necessitated by heavy payments of federal taxes.

Reports from other reserve centers indicated no disturbance of monetary conditions. On the contrary there were signs that banks at leading commercial sections were buying liberally of mercantile paper.

The industrial situation was less reassuring, advices from Philadelphia telling of further reduction of operations in the woolen mills. Extensive cancellations and lower prices for finished materials were assigned as the primary causes.

Issues of the prominent chemical companies made further material gains today, but were irregularly shaded towards the close as were the more moderate advances in steels, equipments and rails. Sales amounted to 525,000 shares.

Trading in bonds was fairly large, the activity, however, being mainly at the expense of values. Liberty issues and the foreign division eased. Total sales, par value, aggregated $18,875,000. Old United States bonds unchanged on call.

CORN REACHES NEW HIGH PRICES

Chicago, June 16.—Corn soared today to the highest price yet this season; offerings were of insufficient volume to appease demand from shippers here. The market closed nervous at 1⅛c to 1⅞c net advance, with July $1.78¾ to $1.78⅞ and September $1.69¼ to $1.69½.

Oats finished unchanged to ⅝c lower. Provisions gained 20c to 32c.

Bulls had the advantage in the corn market throughout the day. Only temporary setbacks took place and they were plainly due to realizing on the part of the holders. Arrivals were rather liberal. Industries as well as shippers were active bidders. Strong commission houses led the buying of futures. Rains in Iowa, Nebraska and elsewhere tended to ease the oats market. Furthermore the French government was reported to have cancelled purchases totalling 700,000 bushels.

Higher quotations on grain and hogs gave a lift to provisions, notwithstanding that the semi-monthly statement showed increased stocks of pork, lard and ribs.

A Policy That Pays

REO has never been ambitious to make all the motor cars—only the best. From the first, the policy was to make only as many as could be made and be sure that every REO would be as good as the best REO that ever was turned out of the REO plant. That policy consistently adhered to through the many years has resulted in a demand always greater than the possible output of the big REO plants. At this time the over-demand is such that only the alert can hope to be of the elect who will drive REOS. Today—won't be a minute too soon.

IT WAS CONFETTI

In the account of the park board meeting it was stated that the use of central park for July Fourth celebration, July 5th, would be permitted if there were no cencessions. It should have said if no confetti was used. The stuff is a nuisance in the grass making a lot of work to get it out.

HOME MADE RECIPE CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this benefical remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you.

Seven a day for seven days—Wonderful results.

YEGGS BLOW SAFES AT MURRAYVILLE

Enter Offices of Million Lumber Company and Cade & Lewis Grain Elevator.

Murrayville, June 16.—Some time early this morning yeggs blew the safes in the offices of the Million Lumber company and the Cade & Lewis grain elevator.

The robberies were not discovered until daylight this morning, as the safe blowers did their work so well there was little noise from the explosions. Nitro glycerine was used in each instance.

The robbers got but little for their work, $10 being secured at the grain elevator office, while nothing was secured from the lumber company. Some papers were destroyed, which were taken from the Lumber company safe.

Murrayville seems to be a mecca for safe blowers. Last fall robbers attempted to rob the Murrayville bank, but were frightened away. Sheriff Weatherford was notified but no trace of the robbers could be secured.

FIRE AT SOUTH SIDE PLANING MILL

Early Morning Blaze Damages Planing Mill and Adjacent Property—Prompt Action by Department Prevents Disastrous Blaze.

Fire of Unknown origin which started at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday morning damaged the O. H. Cook planing mill and also did slight damage to the properties J. A. Shadid and Jerry Sweeney.

The fire started in a shed which runs north and south at the rear of the main mill building. This shed is used for the storing of fine lumber and also as a garage. The building was badly burned and the contents also damaged. The firemen got the automobile out of the burning shed before it was damaged.

From the shed the flames spread to the garage of J. A. Shadid at 123 East Morton avenue. The building was damaged but the automobile was removed to safety.

There was a high wind blowing at the time of the fire and sparks were carried to the residence of Jerry Sweeney, 1015 South East and set fire to the roof. This blaze was also extinguished without much damage.

The fire also spread to the main building of the planing mill but the firemen soon had it under control. The total value of the property involved was $15,000. However, the actual loss is small and is fully covered by insurance.

Mr. Cook has no idea of how the fire started. When he was first awakened he said it seemed as tho the whole mill was afire. The alarm was quickly turned in and the department made a quick run and soon had two streams playing on the flames.

SUPREME COURT ACTS IN DRAINAGE CASE

Finding in Indian Creek District No. 2 as Against C. B. & Q. is Reversed.

The supreme court yesterday reversed the finding of the Morgan county court in the Indian Creek drainage district No. 2 as related to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, and remanded the case for a new trial. This was a case taken to the supreme court by the Burlington on appeal because of objections to the great expense and without any corresponding benefit that would result to the railroad if a district is constructed as outlined.

The requirement of the statute is that a ditch in order to throw the expense upon property owners should be "constructed on the line of any natural depression, channel or water course." It was the claim of the railroad that this section of the law was wholly ignored and that the petitioner was allowed to show that a slight depression in the ground under a railroad trestle, formed a line of depression, channel or water course, within the meaning of the statute.

The evidence in the case indicated that petitioners for the district proposed to construct a ditch from a bend in the creek east of the railroad in the vicinity of Arenzville, 210 feet distant from the trestle, across cultivated fields to the pile trestle in the railroad embankment.

The petitioners maintained that this would follow a natural water course while the railroad maintained that the ditch was wholly artificial.

Large Expense Involved

The principal objection on the part of the railroad was because the work as outlined would necessitate a raising of the railroad track for a considerable distance thru Arenzville and that this work would cost at least $265,000 in addition to other expenses entailed in the re-arrangement plan for handling traffic.

In the appeal to the supreme court it was shown that the estimated cost of the whole public improvement was $163,380, while the railroad would be occasioned an expense of more than $265,000.

In making the statement to the supreme court, the attorneys for the railroad maintained that the operation of the railroad thru Arenzville is at best a difficult problem. The road has a double track to a point about one mile north of Arenzville and to a point about two miles south of Arenzville, while there is but a single track between the points mentioned.

Heavy Traffic

Operators are constantly on hand at these block points and the usual requirements must be met before any train is able to proceed along this single track. The company handles about thirty trains a day across the track and the loads aggregate 5500 to 6,000 tons. The court brief said: "The disruption of this piece of track with its permanent foundations and durably built structures is shown by the evidence to be a most serious matter; that the raising of said piece of track a distance of over 4,000 feet means an outlay not only for the actual work of construction but that it utterly disrupts the operating system; that when the delay to trains and the other hazards of operation and expenses are all cast up, the company will be out in cash an enormous sum."

In the supreme court proceedings William H. Dietrich and Wilson & Butler were the attorneys for the appellant, and Worthington, Reeve & Green attorneys for the appellee.
